The Reflector.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 20, 1888.

The waterworks well is at a standstill. The city is not suffering for water, however, at present.

They had a Democratic-Union Labor debate at Hope the other night that the Herald says "was as good as a circus."

MARRIED—At Herington, Sept. 12, by Rev. E. G. Mathena, Wm. P. Bosart and Madie P. McChord, both of Herington.

Abilene has a school library of 800 volumes, and $620 to invest in new books. The walks and walls now being built around the school houses will cost $2,500.

The bodies of Milo Eveleigh and Albert Franks were recovered from the ruins of the Rockwell block in Junction last Friday. They were scarcely recognizable.

A man named Smith is the Union Labor candidate for the Senate in this district. It seems to us that we've heard that name some place before. —[Hope Herald.]

J. A. Kummerland, our cornice manufacturer, has the work upon the new bank building at La Crosse. Mr. K. is getting a wide reputation for his work and we are glad to see it.

Newton Republican: Ed Little was not counted worthy to be nominated for the Legislature in Ness county, but his talents will be utilized on the stump for the Republican party in the Seventh Congressional district. He "opens" at Larned.

S. S. Smith, our efficient city clerk, came near being nominated for county attorney by the Dems on Saturday. As it was he received a glowing eulogy before it was discovered they were talking about the wrong Smith. "Sunset" is on the other side of the fence.

The tinhorn Salvationists have struck Bernard and are diligently laboring to convert the heathen in and around that place. Poor Bernard, she has bravely passed through the hard times, safely survived the failures of crops, only to be swept down upon at last by the Salvation army. Alas! What has she ever done to be thus afflicted? —[Manchester Sun.]

You can generally get an idea about the ability of a Republican from the way the Democrats abuse him. From the way they have been talking about J. R. Burton of late we are still further inclined to the opinion he is one of the most brilliant young men in the west and he is certain to receive a big majority of the votes from the 68th district. —[Solomon Sentinel.]

The Manchester Sun comes to us this week doubled in size, being now a six-column quarto. We are glad to see this evidence of prosperity. It shows that northwest Dickinson appreciates the work that Editor Green is doing for that section. He is giving his readers a good paper and deserves success.

John Lancaster is hunting in vain for the rascals who broke into his room the first of last week and relieved him of his militia medal valued at $20, a K. of P. badge, a quantity of fine clothes, etc., a total loss of about $70. Such petty thievery is getting too common in the city and a striking example should be made of the thieves if caught.

A Day of Fate.

Not a sound was heard from the small boy's throat, as the white tents rose toward heaven; but he gazed wide-mouthed at the ten-horned goat and the man with heads eleven. Then he trudged through town when the great parade its splendors spread in glory and tracked the crowd to grounds again, and harked to the side-show story. Then he paid his dime and drank with glee a view of the wild Abyssinian, and saw the face of the fierce Fee-fee and the tawny black-haired Guinean.

In the great big tent he gazed entranced on the beasts from lands of wonder, and stopped his ears when the big lion danced and roared like a peal of thunder. He watched the girls in their flying rides, and blushed at their scanty dresses. O'er the clown's old gags he shook his sides and believed in the fool's wild guesses.

He saw the elephant play his part, and the long-necked giraffe antic; he watched the pranks of the donkey smart, and o'er the snakes went frantic. He stayed at last for the after-show, and viewed the dwarfs there biding, then out in the night where the lamps burned low he steered for the railroad siding.

Five hours of the wondrous night was done e'er the show rolled out of the station and the boy as he saw the last of the fun would take no consolation. Slowly and sadly he knelt right down as the clock struck the hour of eleven, and prayed he might die and turn into a clown and dwell in a canvas heaven. —[From "The Adventures of Johnny Dunsbury."]

The New Weekly.

The Dickinson County News made its first appearance last Thursday. Messrs. S. K. and F. T. Strother are to be congratulated upon the make-up of the first number. The REFLECTOR wishes the News abundant success in everything except its political advocacy.

DEMOCRATIC DELIBERATIONS.

A Partial County Ticket Selected for the Slaughter in November.

The Democratic county convention was called to order at 2:15 p. m. Saturday by Hon. W. T. Harris, chairman of the central committee. A full list of delegates was present but not the usual number of outsiders.

On motion James McNaspy, of Herington, was selected as temporary chairman. George Irons, of Hope, was elected temporary secretary and S. K. Strother assistant secretary.

On motion the chair was empowered to appoint committees of five each on order of business, credentials and resolutions.

The committees were filled as follows:

Order of business—T F Foley, A M German, Dr Brooks, Col A S Jarnigan, H H McDonald.

Credentials—B L Strother, Henry Litts, J W Creech, O P Fenton, Ed Blaich.

Resolutions—T F Smith, Dr. McMahon, P H Meyers, F Luker, Col Swigart.

On motion the following committee on permanent organization was appointed: P D Drake, W S Morgan, Francis Berry. A recess of fifteen minutes was taken to enable the committees to prepare their reports.

Upon reassembling the report of the committee on order of business was read by Dr C H Brooks, chairman.

The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

The committee on credentials reported through Henry Litts. In addition to the regular delegation, Lyon township was granted three extra delegates on account of Herington's growth.

Report accepted.

The committee on permanent organization recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent. Adopted.

T. F. Smith, chairman of the committee on resolutions, read the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Be it resolved by the Democrats of Dickinson county in convention assembled,

That we renew our devotion to the cause of free government and reaffirm the principles enunciated in both the National and State Democratic platforms.

That we invite an active scrutiny of the administration of public affairs which four years ago was committed to President Cleveland.

That in recognition of the record of the Democratic party, in recognition of its fidelity and devotion to the pledges which four years ago were made to the people, in recognition of the pledge of the continuance of the benefits of a wise, honest and efficient administration of public affairs, we believe that the people will triumphantly re-elect Grover Cleveland at the election in November next.

That we are unalterably opposed to taxing the necessities of life for the benefit of monopolies, corporations, combines and trusts and while carefully guarding the interests of all classes and with a view to the enforcement of frugality in public expenses, the Democratic party will continue frugality in public expenses, and the struggle to abolish unnecessary taxation.

That we most heartily endorse the action of the St. Louis convention in the nomination of Grover Cleveland and Allen G. Thurman for our standard bearers in the pending campaign, and that in the selection of these noble leaders, the country will have the guaranty of four years more of honest economical and efficient administration.

That we pledge ourselves as Democrats to give to the nominees of our party of National, State and county tickets our hearty support.

A resolution to regulate the fees of county officers, to limit rates of taxation by exempting real estate from taxation (pro rata valuation) to the amount of its incumbrances, was voted down.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of county officers.

For probate judge W. P. Seeds was nominated by acclamation.

T. F. Smith was put in nomination for county attorney. He withdrew and F. A. Smalley was nominated. He also declined the nomination. The nomination for county attorney was passed.

Balloting for district clerk proceeded. The informal ballot resulted: H J G Neumiller 61; Robert Kane 14; On formal ballot Neumiller received 56 and Kane 16, thus nominating Neumiller, of Solomon. John Russell, of Abilene, was nominated for county superintendent by acclamation.

Dr T N Gunn and B H D'Huy were nominated for county high school commissioners.

The appointment of a central committee was next in order.

On motion the chair appointed a central committee of thirteen, also eleven delegates to the Senatorial convention.

The representative district conventions were then held separately.

In the 68th district convention T. H. Malott, of Abilene, and John T. Blevins, of Flora, were placed in nomination for Representative. On the third ballot Mr. Malott was nominated.

In the 69th district Jerry Sheahan was nominated for representative unanimously.

The commissioner convention of the Second district nominated John J. Berry by acclamation.

There being no further business, the convention adjourned.

More Good Words.

The Hope Herald has the following bit of praise regarding a paper in whose success we are greatly interested:

"The Abilene REFLECTOR is entitled to and should have the thanks of everyone in Hope for the liberal write-ups it gave our fair. If any outside paper deserves our patronage the REFLECTOR has surely earned it."

Has Secured an Assistant.

When Benjamin Washington Peck, the coming probate judge of this county, returned home last Friday from a trip through south Dickinson he found an addition to his family in the shape of a bouncing boy. The youngster is a true blue Republican and will, no doubt, prove an able assistant in his father's office.

Headquarters.

The REFLECTOR is always glad to see its friends at its office. Although it is Republican headquarters for Dickinson county, yet it is pleased to have a call from its Democratic friends who are numbered by the hundreds. Whenever you are in town, and especially if you know a bit of interesting news from your neighborhood, make the REFLECTOR a call. You will be welcome.

The Trades Display.

The ladies having in charge the Trades Display have concluded to hold the entertainment in the Bonebrake opera house on account of the great interest being taken in the affair by our citizens. The company of young ladies which will take part in the military evolutions has been enlarged and the greatest rivalry is being manifested by the various business firms in the costumes of their respective representatives.

The time has been definitely set for Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

Everybody should make their preparations to attend this novel and interesting exhibition.

Southwest Teachers' Institute.

The southwest teachers' institute will be held at Belle Valley, district No. 117, Oct. 13, at 10 o'clock a. m., when the following program will be carried out:

Opening exercises. Address of Welcome. A. M. Tolbert. Primary Reading. W. E. Binder. Educational News. Levi Humberger. Literature. author, O. W. Holmes, J. H. Nisley. Selection from Holmes. Miss Lizzie Smith. Methods. S. M. Cook. Relation of pupil and teacher. G. B. Allen. Philosophy. S. C. D. W. Holmes.

The evening program will be arranged during the day of institute.

Superintendent J. S. Ford will be present in the evening and give a talk to the teachers and school officers.

The committee invites all teachers of the various districts to be present and take an active part in the discussion of the program. COMMITTEE.

Talmage Republicans.

The Republicans of Talmage held a meeting at the school house on Tuesday evening, Sep. 11th, for the purpose of organizing a Republican club. The meeting was called to order by W. McK. Merrifield, and a temporary organization was effected with J. M. Keifer as president and J. S. Killen as secretary. The secretary then read the constitution and by-laws recommended for adoption by the Kansas Republican League. A call for signers resulted in the signature of every Republican present being affixed to the constitution, which with the by-laws was then adopted by a unanimous vote. The club then proceeded to the election of permanent officers. For president, W. McK. Merrifield and F. A. Shadinger were placed in nomination. In a short speech Mr. Shadinger withdrew his name and Mr. Merrifield was chosen by acclamation. Other officers were elected as follows: Vice-president, A. Balingier; Secretary, J. S. Killen; Treasurer, J. M. Keifer. The president appointed the following executive committee: A. Balingier, H. McKicker, A. L. Saylor, G. H. Cheney and H. R. Holzworth. The President was authorized to procure speakers for the next meeting. After some discussion the club adjourned to meet on Tuesday, Sep. 18th.

J. S. KILLEN, Secy.

Politics and Pleasure.

Speaking of the notables at the Hope fair the Herald says:

Among the fair visitors last Thursday was one whom the Herald always delighted to honor. Walter Nichols, "our Walter," the polished, affable and honest gentleman who so ably fills the office of register of deeds, is the one to whom we refer, and when we speak of him in this vein we only reflect, a sentiment heard on every side.

Genial Mike Bert was also down and renewed many old acquaintances who helped him into the office of county clerk, which he is filling so acceptably, so gracefully and so capably. Mike will also be a candidate for a second term in 1889 and has a safe thing.

Winfield Scott Stambaugh gave the soldier boys a talk at noon, which was complimented by all the vets. Stam made even on his trip by stowing away an unusual quantity of baked beans, hard tack and coffee at the noon hour, and the boys say he took to them as naturally as a duck to a mill pond.

Ben Peck, the wheel horse of the Jefferson township Republicans, and who is the nominee for probate judge, was on hand by a large and enthusiastic majority and extended his already large circle of friends and acquaintances who wish to see him don the ermine. Ben don't put on any scollaps or frills, but as a stayer he has a wide reputation. Our capable county superintendent of schools, J. S. Ford, who is also in the field as the nominee of the party of the stars and stripes for re-election, was a modest, yet conspicuous visitor. Those who don't know him personally know him by his works and all were glad to pledge him assistance in his race. Mr. Ford has had no superior among his predecessors in office, and his re-election is to be devoutly wished for.

I have four windmills left that I will sell at half price, these mills are the Baker Vaneless and are a standard make.

C. F. Simmons, St. Louis, Prop'r M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine, East St. 820, in the U. S. Court reports J. H. Zeilin, Prop'r A. Q. Simmons Liver Regulator, East by Zeilin 1888. M. A. S. L. M. has for 47 years cured INDIGESTION, BILIOUSNESS, DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, LOST APPETITE, SORE STOMACH, ETC. Rev. J. B. Reame, Pastor M. E. Church, Adams, Tenn., writes: "I think I should have been dead but for your Genuine M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine. I have sometimes had to substitute 'Zeilin's stuff' for your Medicine, but it don't answer the purpose."

Dr. J. R. Graves, Editor The Baptist, Memphis, Tenn., says: "I received a package of your Liver Medicine, and have used half of it. It works like a charm. I want no better Liver Regulator and certainly no more of Zeilin's mixture."

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsville, Ind., says: "I had been in a deplorable condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia and Indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy; a few bottles of it has cured me completely. I consider it the greatest medicine in the world." A trial bottle will convince you. Price 15 cents. Sold by J. M. Gleisner, druggist, Abilene.
